GreNo Authority slaps Rs 1.31 lakh fine on four societies

Noida:
The Greater Noida (GreNo) Authority imposed a fine of Rs 1.31 lakh on four societies in Greater Noida West. Along with creating awareness about cleanliness, the team of the health department of Greater Noida Authority is also continuing the process of imposing fines.

Following the instructions of the GreNo Authority's CEO NG Ravi Kumar, action is being taken to check the disposal of garbage at bulk waste generators and if any deficiency is found, then fine is being imposed.

The health department team inspected garbage disposal in four societies of Greater Noida West on Wednesday under the Solid Waste Management Policy 2016. The team inspected garbage disposal in Ratan Pearls Society in sector 16, Ajnara Le Garden Society in sector-16B and Amrapali Dream Valley Villas and Amrapali Dream Valley Enchante societies located in Techzone-4 were inspected.

10 Avenue Society residents fed up with garbage around

Noida:
People are troubled by the filth spread near 10 Avenue Society located in Gaur City-2.

They alleged that the drains are open here due to which there is always a danger of spreading diseases. The locals demanded action from the authority on social media.

Deepak Gupta, who lives in the society, said that Galaxy Complex is built behind the complex. There is a lot of filth spread around it. The drains are open due to which there is a foul smell. The employees of the authority do not come here for cleaning.

Delhi's development will not halt due to budget constraints: CM Gupta

Staff Reporter
New Delhi:
Chief Minister Rekha Gupta on Wednesday assured that development in Delhi will continue without interruptions due to budget limitations. She has asked government department heads to ensure that all ongoing projects are completed on time, emphasizing the government's strong financial backing and support from the Central Government.

Additionally, she has directed the full implementation of the e-office system to prevent delays in development work.

In a recent meeting at the Delhi Secretariat, Gupta reviewed the progress of various development projects and reminded officials that all budgeted projects must be executed promptly and monitored regularly. She highlighted that with a record budget of one lakh crore, financial issues should not hinder any project. Gupta plans to consistently review these projects to ensure their timely completion.

She also acknowledged the support of Prime Minister Narendra Modi and the Central Government in striving for a "Developed Delhi. " Gupta noted the positive impact of digital governance, stressing the need for more departments to adopt the e-office system. Currently, only 119 out of 199 departments have implemented it, and she urged the remaining departments to join swiftly.

Furthermore, she encouraged all departments to actively participate in the "Kude Se Azadi" campaign during August and to handle complaints from the public efficiently through the PGMS portal. Gupta instructed department heads to prioritize work related to representatives and ministers and to improve their office environments to enhance public service.

She reiterated the government's commitment to transparent and citizen-focused governance, stating that achieving these goals requires effort from all departments to provide timely and quality services.

Nasha Mukt Bharat Abhiyan" now receiving full cooperation from Delhi Govt: Ravinder Indraj

Staff Reporter
New Delhi:
Delhi's Minister for Social Welfare, Ravinder Indraj Singh, on Wednesday announced full support from the Delhi Government for the Nasha Mukt Bharat Abhiyan during a recent event at Kendriya Vidyalaya, celebrating the campaign's five-year anniversary.

He noted that serious initiatives for drug de-addiction have been implemented in Delhi over the past five months.

Minister Indraj expressed gratitude to Union Minister Dr. Virendra Kumar and Minister of State Shri B. L. Verma for their collaboration with the Delhi Govern-

He encouraged students to volunteer in the Nasha Mukt Delhi campaign, underlining that a drug-free youth is essential for the nation's progress.

The Minister highlighted that, for the first time, an extensive event was held in Delhi on June 26 to mark the International Day Against Drug Abuse and Illicit Trafficking. Various awareness activities, including street plays and special campaigns, took place in 64 key areas prone to drug issues.

Grand Tiranga Yatra Led by Education Minister Ashish Sood in Janakpuri

Diksha
New Delhi:
Marking the 79th Independence Day, Delhi's Education Minister Ashish Sood led a grand Tiranga Yatra from Block C-1 to Dabri Chowk in Janakpuri, joined by over 8,000 residents, including RWAs, social and religious organizations, schoolchildren, and West Delhi MP Kamaljeet Sehrawat.

Holding the Tricolour high, participants marched through the locality, spreading the message of patriotism, unity, and cleanliness. In his address, Sood said the Tiranga Yatra was not only a celebration of Independence Day but also a call for positive social change. He urged citizens to use indigenous products, appealing for the replacement of Chinese manjha with domestic alternatives and tri-coloured kites.

Sharing childhood memories, he stressed that August 15 should be more than hoisting flags and flying kites — it should be an occasion to do something meaningful for the country. Recalling Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose's slogan, "You give me blood, and I will give you freedom," Sood said the nation now needs passion, good values, and constructive contributions from its people.

Paying tribute to the Kargil martyrs, he highlighted the extraordinary courage of young soldiers who sacrificed their lives for the nation. "We don't all need to go to the border," he said, "but by keeping our surroundings clean, obeying traffic rules, protecting the environment, and safeguarding public property, we too serve the country."

The procession concluded with chants of patriotism, leaving Janakpuri resonating with the spirit of unity and national pride.

DUSU elections to be held on September 18

New Delhi:
The Delhi University Students' Union (DUSU) elections for the 2025–26 academic year will be held on September 18, the university announced on Wednesday. Counting of votes will take place on September 19.

According to a DU notification, voting for day classes will be held from 8:30 am to 1 pm, while students of evening classes will cast their votes from 3 pm to 7:30 pm.

The last date for receipt of nomination papers, along with a demand draft of Rs 500 as an annual fee and a bond of Rs 1 lakh, is September 10 by 3 pm. Scrutiny of nomination papers will be carried out the same day at 3:15 pm, followed by the publication of the list of duly nominated candidates by 6 pm, the notification said.

The deadline for withdrawing nominations is September 11 till noon, and the final list of candidates will be published by 5 pm the same day.

For DUSU posts, nomination papers must be submitted to the Office of the Chief Election Officer at the Conference Centre, opposite the Botany Department on North Campus. Nomination papers for Central Council seats must be submitted to the respective colleges or departments.

The notification also highlighted that the code of conduct, constitution of DUSU, Supreme Court orders on student union elections, and related guidelines are available on the DU website.

Sirsa reviews first-of-its-kind pilot project to deploy 30 emission retrofitting devices

New Delhi:
The Delhi Government is launching a pilot project to reduce vehicular pollution by installing 30 catalytic converter-based retrofitting devices on heavy commercial vehicles.

This initiative, led by the Delhi Pollution Control Committee (DPCC), aims to cut harmful emissions like particulate matter, carbon monoxide, hydrocarbons, and nitrogen oxides by over 70% in BS-III and BS-IV vehicles.

Environment Minister Manjinder Singh Sirsa emphasized that this is a pioneering move in India, showcasing the government's commitment to using technology for environmental solutions.

The project is a response to the Central Air Quality Management's guidelines, which restrict older, more polluting vehicles from entering Delhi. The government is focused on finding science-based alternatives that help reduce pollution while safeguarding jobs. The retrofitting devices have been tested for durability and are proven effective, making them suitable for a significant pilot program.

Sirsa stated that this initiative reflects a long-term vision for sustainable air quality improvements in Delhi and could be adapted in other cities facing similar pollution issues. If successful, this pilot could lead to more widespread implementation in Delhi and beyond.

Metro rail services to begin at 4 am on Aug 15

Staff Reporter
New Delhi:
In view of the Independence Day celebrations, the metro rail services will commence at 4 am on Friday, August 15, 2025.

To facilitate the special guests, invitees and general public to attend the Independence Day ceremony on Friday, 15th August 2025, the Delhi metro will commence its services at 04:00 am on all its lines from all terminal stations, said the Delhi Metro Rail Corporation (DMRC) in a statement here on Wednesday.

The train services will be available at a frequency of 30 minutes on all the lines till 06:00 am and thereafter, a regular timetable will be followed for the rest of the day.

In addition, people who will be in possession of a bonafide invitation card issued by the Ministry of Defence for attending the Independence Day ceremony will be facilitated with travel to and from the venue using special QR tickets supplied by the DMRC.

The Lal Quila, Jama Masjid, and Delhi Gate Metro stations are the closest to the venue. The cost towards such travel will be reimbursed to DMRC by the Ministry of Defence.

All permissions for Ramleela 'performances to be granted through single window: CM Gupta

Staff Reporter
New Delhi:
Chief Minister Rekha Gupta on Wednesday announced new measures to support the staging of Ramleela performances in Delhi during Navratri.

A single window system will now manage all permissions needed for these events, streamlining the process at the district level through the District Magistrate's office.

Additionally, a special committee has been established to handle any issues related to Ramleela, ensuring that events can proceed without hindrances.

This decision followed a meeting at Raj Niwas with senior officials and members of the Delhi Ramleela Federation.

The Chief Minister shared that this year's Ramleela will take place from September 22 to October 2.

The tradition of Ramleela in Delhi has a long history, and many residents remain enthusiastic about attending these performances.

Approximately 600 Ramleela shows take place each year, including 100 major ones on a grand scale. However, organizers have faced challenges in previous years, including delays in securing land and obtaining necessary no-objection certificates (NOCs), which hindered the organization of events.

As part of the new measures, the CM mentioned that the security deposit for land has been reduced from Rs 20 to Rs 15 per square meter. The allotted area for entertainment spaces linked to Ramleela performances has also expanded from 25% to 40%.

To resolve disputes over rides and food stalls in entertainment areas, a committee will consist of a deputy director-level officer from the DDA and two members from the Delhi Ramleela Federation. This committee will facilitate communication with various departments when conflicts arise.
